

KDHE Earns March of Dimes Recognition Award for Outstanding 2004 Walk Effort

The Kansas Department of Health and Environment (KDHE) earned a Super Hero Award at the March of Dimes Volunteer Appreciation Luncheon on June 30 for the largest percentage increase over its campaign goal during this year's WalkAmerica campaign.

Teams and organizations earning the Super Hero Award must have exceeded their 2004 campaign goal by 25 percent and shown an increase in donations from the previous year's campaign. KDHE led eight other local teams in this category by exceeding its campaign goal by 189 percent; and increasing its donations over the 2003 campaign by 230 percent. KDHE raised $2,891.00 in the 2004 campaign.

Sylverina Norman, Office of the Secretary, accepted a Super Hero Award plaque on behalf of KDHE from Joan Wagnon, March of Dimes 2004 campaign co-chair. Theresa Carter, Office of the Secretary, was KDHE's March of Dimes coordinator for 2004.

Theresa Carter, center, relaxes with walking teammate Lisa Williams, left, and daughter, Tanesha, after completing the 2004 WalkAmerica for the March of Dimes in April.

KDHE earned a Super Hero Award from the March of Dimes June 30 for its 2004 fundraising efforts.

